

Biswajyoti Sarmah is a Teacher trainer by Education, Social Scientist by Passion and Asst. Professor by Profession working in the Integrated Teacher Education Program, Tyagbir Hem Baruah College, Jamugurihat, Assam. He has years of teaching experience and is also a guest speaker in National and International institutions. He has a number of national and international publications, authored books and carried research projects of Govt. of India. His recent collaborative work with Dr. Lana V. Lazareva from Penza State University, Russia is entitled "The Socio-psychological adaptation of Indian students in Russian University". His areas of interests are Teaching of History, Indian knowledge Systems, Psychological Foundations of Education, Pedagogy of Social sciences, Inclusive Education and Curriculum designing and development.

Dr. Lana V. Lazareva is an accomplished academic with a Ph.D. in Pedagogy, along with Master's degrees in Psychology and Jurisprudence. Based in Penza, Russia, she has been serving as an Associate Professor in the Department of Pedagogy and Psychology at Penza State University since 2004. With over 30 years of experience in education, her work spans teaching history, social sciences, and conducting advanced research in educational sciences and psychology. Her areas of interest include Educational Sciences, Psychology, Strategies of Psychological assistance to international students, Digital technologies and Learning motivation. Dr. Lazareva has a prolific academic output, with 73 publications to her credit. Notable works include studies on socio-cultural adaptation of international students, culturally sensitive counseling, and the impact of digital tools on student engagement.

Dr. Lazareva is also dedicated to professional development, having completed numerous advanced training programs focusing on inclusive education, psychological aspects of pedagogy, and leveraging digital tools in academic settings. Her contributions have earned her recognition in both national and international academic circles.

CONTENT CUM PEDAGOGY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES AT SECONDARY STAGE Course-I

{A Textbook For the Students of 4th Semester
Integrated Teacher Education Programme }

Volume-I

Biswajyoti Sarmah
Dr. Lana V. Lazareva

